The sole responsibility and liability of Armourcoat under this warranty shall be to replace the Armourcoat materials described herein shown to be defective during the warranty period. No other charges or expenses including workmanship compensation will be allowed or borne by Armourcoat. Further, this warranty is void if the Armourcoat materials are intermixed with other additives, chemicals or materials not specifically required by Armourcoat's specifications or if the ArmourColor finish is applied to any other materials or substrates other than recommended by Armourcoat. Further, no warranty whatsoever is made for damage caused in whole or in part by wear and tear, accidental damage, impact damage, acts of war, terrorism, general insurrection, acts of God or natural phenomenon, such as but not limited to falling objects, fire, earthquake, floods, pests, chemical fumes in the atmosphere, nor architecture, engineering, defective or improper workmanship by the applicator, aesthetics, nor other damage or injury not solely and directly caused by defects in Armourcoat's materials as covered under this warranty.

This constitutes the entire warranty agreement and Armourcoat makes no other warranties expressed or implied with respect to the materials except as expressly stated herein.

Armourcoat shall not be responsible for incidental or consequential damages of any kind. This warranty is issued to the original owner of the structure into which Armourcoat's materials have been incorporated, and may not be transferred or assigned. Armourcoat shall not have any obligations under this warranty unless the owner notifies Armourcoat Limited, Morewood Close, London Road, Sevenoaks, Kent TN13 2HU, United Kingdom in writing, or its designated agent/distributor in writing, within thirty days of the alleged defects. This warranty shall be interpreted under the laws of England.
